I. Progress Report re Capsized Motor Banca at Camotes, Cebu

• Situation Overview

- On or about 11 AM, 06 February 2018, a motor banca "MB "Habagat" capsized in the Coast of Barangay Consuelo, San Francisco, Cebu. The motorbanca was capsized by strong waves due to Gale (strong winds).
- Initial investigation revealed that the motorbanca was carrying thirty-four (34) passengers including the crews, which was heading to Brgy Sonog, San Francisco, Cebu and departed from Sitio Malbago, Brgy Luyang, Carmen, Cebu at about 7:00 AM despite Gale warning. The boat was hit by strong waves and did not withstand causing it to capsized at the coast of Consuelo at about 11:00 AM more or less.
- Lite Ferry 27 of Lite Shipping passes on the Camotes strait spotted the ill-fated motor Banca and rescued twenty-nine (29) persons, twenty-seven (27) of this were passengers, to include crews and retrieved the fatalities. The survivors were brought to Mandaue City for medical attention.
