

Kanlaon Volcano Eruption (2024)

SitRep No. 10 for Kanlaon Volcano Eruption (2024)

December 16, 2024, 8:00 AM

On 09 December 2024, an explosive eruption occurred at the summit vent of Kanlaon Volcano from 3:03 PM to 3:10 PM. The eruption produced a voluminous plume that rapidly rose to 4,000 meters above the vent and was bent and drifted by strong winds to the west-southwest. Pyroclastic density currents or PDCs descended the slopes on the general southeastern edifice based on IP and thermal camera monitors.

Ashfall was reported over a wide area west of the volcano while Pyroclastic density currents or PDCs, hazardous mixtures of hot volcanic gas, ash, and fragmented rock, were generated at the base of the eruption column and descended the south-southeastern sides of the edifice based on camera monitors. The longest descent of the PDCs from the summit crater was estimated to be approximately 2 to 3.4 kilometers in Masolog, La Castellana, still within the four-kilometer radius of the Permanent Danger Zone (PDZ).

In view thereof, DOST-PHIVOLCS raised the Alert Level of Kanlaon Volcano from Alert Level 2 (increasing unrest) to Alert Level 3 (magmatic unrest). This means magmatic eruption have begun that may progress to further explosive eruptions. All local government units are advised to evacuate the 6-km radius from the summit of the volcano and must be prepared for additional evacuation if activity warrants.
